Who We Are

Our mission: advancing equity for women and girls through advocacy, education, and research.

AAUW is the nation's leading voice promoting equity and education for women and girls. Since our founding in 1881, AAUW members have examined and taken positions on the fundamental issues of the day: educational, social, economic, and political.

Since 1909, the Boise Branch has been part of this organization, which consists of more than 180,000 members and supporters with 1,000 branches and 800 college and university partners.

General Meetings 2020-2021

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the branch is currently not holding in-person branch meetings. However, the branch is using ZOOM to keep its members connected and informed. The branch began a new ZOOM series, entitled "A Conversation With", on June 23, 2020. Branch members interview community leaders and subject matter experts on current issues. Some Interest Groups are using ZOOM to continue their activities; e.g, Book Group (Mystery), Book Group (Sunday), and Happy Hour.
