Who We Are

Our mission: advancing equity for women and girls through advocacy, education, and research.

AAUW is the nation's leading voice promoting equity and education for women and girls. Since our founding in 1881, AAUW members have examined and taken positions on the fundamental issues of the day: educational, social, economic, and political.

Since 1909, the Boise Branch has been part of this organization, which consists of more than 170,000 members and supporters with 700 branches and 500 college and university partners.
